HIS PRAYER ANSWERED.

A Strong Man Instantly Becomes a Speechless Imbecile.

DOUGLAS, Ga., January 4.—"I hope that God may paralyze me," were the words spoken by William Burklett. At once his hands dropped to his side, his legs refused to move, and his eyes rolled wildly around. His prayer was answered as he stood, paralyzed on the spot, where but a few moments before he was a magnificent type of physical manhood. He tried to speak, but his tongue would not move. Half a dozen men who were present were rendered motionless by the evident visitation of the hand of God. When they recovered self-possession they tenderly moved the afflicted man to his residence, a half mile distant. When Miss Rhoda Burklett saw the plight in which her father was brought home, she screamed and fainted, and died soon after.

For many years Mr. Burklett had been the ferryman at the Hawkinsville road crossing of the Ocmulgee River.
He was of giant physique, with long gray locks, and became especially noted because of the brace of revolvers which he kept strapped to his waist. He was a great hunter, and the ferry being in the midst of a swamp, he was convenient to an abundance of game. From those who lived around him, it was learned that he was fearfully profane whenever he sighted game and was called off from it by an alarm from the ferry. He would pour out such a volley of oaths as would make the flesh of ordinary men crawl.

It was in one of these profane spells that he cursed his Creator, and wound up with the expression above quoted.
The news soon spread through the country, and scores of people called to see the victim. He was at first completely prostrated, but subsequently was enabled to take a few steps, when he would fall. When spoken to he replies in an inarticulate mumble, and acts in the most idiotic manner. The physicians can ascribe no natural cause for his affliction, but admit it is a visitation of God. The preachers in the neighborhood have used the incident in their sermons with great effect.—Courier-Journal.
